

March 16, 2022

Issue: D

Solihten Update - Lite

A Solihten Institute Publication New in 2022

Employee Supervision Across Racial Lines

The Equity & Inclusion Taskforce of the Solihten Institute National Board of Directors welcomed Leslie Bessellieu, PhD to the Solihten Institute Equity and Inclusion Monthly Resource Hour in March to facilitate a conversation around, Employee Supervision Across Racial Lines.

Dr. Leslie as she is affectionally known, is a Clinical Psychologist, Executive Coach, and owner of Transformations Consulting & Leadership Development. Throughout her many roles of operation, she is intentional in integrating her knowledge of empirically based psychological principles into her coaching experiences and work with organizations. Since 2021, Dr. Leslie has served as an active and engaged Member of the Solihten Institute National Board of Directors (and we are so glad to have her in our Network!).

Resources:

- Session Recording
- PowerPoint Presentation
- Conversation Ground Rules, Catalyst

Dr. Leslie captured this information in her PowerPoint, but this is the expanded version. It could have a wide range of applications for Center interactions.

We hope to see you at future meetings of the SI Equity and Inclusion Sharing and Resource Hour.

Our next offering is on Tuesday, April 19 at 2:00 pm Eastern/1:00 pm Central/12:00 pm Mountain/ 11:00 am Pacific/ 8:00 am HST. More information on the topic of conversation will be coming soon.

If you have any questions, please be sure to reach out to your Center's liaison.