

Solihten Update - Lite

A Solihten Institute Publication New in 2022

Measuring the Immeasurable Are we Looking at the Wrong Things?

The Equity & Inclusion Taskforce of the Solihten Institute National Board of Directors welcomed Katie Hamm, MSW a consultant to nonprofits, and an Adjunct Faculty member of UW-Milwaukee's Helen Bader School of Social Welfare. Her program work specializes in areas of anti-oppression, including human sexuality, LGBTQ inclusion, racism, and other forms of systemic oppression. For this offering, Katie facilitated a conversation around the work of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion through the lens of trauma and empathy.

Katie Hamm, MSW her human services career 30 years ago working with runaway and homeless youth in Los Angeles, California at the Los Angeles Youth Network. In 1994, Katie moved overseas to Rome, Italy, where she lived for 11 years. During that time, she worked for the American University of Rome and as an interpreter for the Rota Romana. She moved to Milwaukee in 2004 and served the community through positions at United Way, Diverse and Resilient, and Pathfinders. Katie has presented locally and nationally on issues of diversity and human sexuality. She is the 2020 recipient of the Helen Bader School of Social Welfare Adjunct Faculty Teaching Award for excellence and innovation in teaching.
